

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.

2 The Consequences of the Fall

3 To the woman He said...

- Genesis 3:16
- Survival in Ancient Near Eastern times
- Adam's failure
- Consequences:
 - Pain in birth
 - Disharmony

4 And to Adam He said...

- Genesis 3:17-19
- Adam's choice to worship himself and not God
- Consequences:
 - Toil
 - Death

5 False worship

- How have men and women replaced their worship of God with worship of themselves?
 - Emotional Idolatry
 - Physical Idolatry
 - Spiritual Idolatry

6 The Intended Order

- Good and Evil
- Authority
- Harmony
- Peace
- Mankind's condition

7 God's Grace

Genesis 3:20-24

- The sacrifice of the animal.
- Hebrews 13:12-13.
- Outside the camp.
- Jesus with "the unclean".
- Pre-crucifixion events.
- What is the nature of the exchange that happens?
- How is Banishment an act of grace?

8 Questions to Consider:

1. How have you, as a man or woman, allowed your worship of yourself to replace the worship of God in your life?
2. Work through by discussing the contrast between God's intended order versus man's intended order.
3. The "cloak of shame" is evident over mankind. In what way might this be true of yourself? Pray through what God has shown you about this.